

CONSIDERING ACCIDENTS

Okay, Baby Love!
Time for a fun experiment.
You ready?

Take a look at where you are in your life and all the circumstances surrounding you at this present moment.

Take a little while.

Now, consider all of the previous events and decisions in your life, good and bad, That have brought you to this very moment.

Take a while.

See the years and years of actions and events, even to the smallest thing like brushing your teeth,
Piled up . . . and directing . . . and shaping you to be who you are and where You are at this moment.

Take a little longer.

Now, you Divine Being, stretch your mind to Understand that changing even one
Past decision that you made, or event you survived,
Would have put you somewhere else, on Earth or Other-where,
At this very moment in time.

Ponder deeper.

Now then, stretch your mind like pizza dough
And wrap it around the fact your body is exactly
Where it's supposed to be to help expand
Your spiritual evolution.

There are no accidents, Baby Love.

Most especially, your bad choices are exactly what your soul needed
To expand your consciousness—they put you in unknown territory to explore.

Sit tight and hold on to that one for a long time.
See what happens in your attitude.
