

WHILE IT'S TRUE, ON THE OTHER HAND

While it's true that
When one is hungry and tired
And cold and without shelter,
It's almost impossible to focus on spiritual work.

On the other hand,
It's also true that spiritual work is
The loving, and kindness, and emotional equilibrium
One can muster when suffering
Hunger, homelessness, poverty and weather.

That same truth resonates in relationships, employment,
Sports, creative work, extreme wealth . . . in Life.

Welcome to the Spiritual World of Expanding Consciousness
Called Humanity on Earth.
