

BECOME PATIENCE

Become Patience, like you become
A Dancer, a Mother, an Athlete, a Teacher,
With your whole Being-ness.

Nothing is going anywhere fast.
Not even slow, by your measurement.

Time is not.

Forever stretches in front of you as if it were FOR—EV—EER.
Open the eyes that do not see, but Know.

One's life is infinite, with no beginning and no end.

However, transformations there are, for sure,
And an infinite number of them.

Worry not, nor rush.

There is always "time"
Unless you say there is not.
