

ABOUT FREE WILL

Free will is not free. Nothing free about it.
It's a human invention to excuse ignorance,
Bungling, idiocy, and the inability to choose wisely.

Ever hear of someone ascending into heaven
While witnesses of the miracle hang their heads and say:
"Well, we all have free will."

Make an ignorant mistake, and Boom! Into the fire!
The family shrugs and declares: "Free will done him in."

The idea of free will is a one-way portal to guilt.
It's the automatic button to shame and blame,
Pushed by true believers inclined to
Power-mongering and crowd control.

Peel away the limited perception of humanity,
Restricted by culture and narrowed by pre-ordained belief,
Then expand consciousness to reveal the stark-naked reality of
ONE WILL.

Putting "appearances" aside, that's all there is.

Oops! No where to hide. Nothing to blame.

Have to take responsibility for every little thing, like God.
Grit the teeth; bite the bullet; turn in a circle and sit on the Earth.

In all you think, say, and do, you respond to One Will.
Only One Will. No options.

Take the bull by the horns, step up and be counted,
Throw caution to the wind, live dangerously!

Be the god-in-training that you are.
Don't wimp-out whining, "Free will is the problem!"
Step up. Recognize mistakes.
Acknowledge the lesson, increase your awareness.

Learn well, and don't do it again, until the next time.

p.s. Eve was set up. She didn't have even a choice.
Let alone free will. Think about it.
