

LISTEN UP, BABY

Listen up, Baby Love.

While you sleep, while your soul is clear,
I'll whisper forbidden realities
You must know as you grow.

Appearances are only partial to your emerging eyes,
But you are now expanding your own Divinity.

Developing ever greater Compassion, Love, and Forgiveness
Is your mission, Divine Child.

Pay attention, now, because the task is simple:
As you aim your mind and emotions toward higher levels,
You automatically achieve your calling,
For it becomes instinctive
    to compassionately serve others,
        to lovingly help where you can, and
            to understand and forgive.

A TAD OF TRUTH: “YOU CAN'T GO BACK. YOU NEVER COULD.”
Your divine birthright is permanent, final, stamped and delivered.
You are who you are, and who you always were.
There's nothing to go back to.
There's only moving forward—often called evolving.

Got it?

Go ahead.
Focus your mind.
Aim your emotions.
See or Find the good in everything.
Behold your own progressing divinization.

Nothing to be proud of, though.
Everyone does it.
Sooner or later.
