

OUT OF IGNORANCE

“Out Of Ignorance Comes Wisdom.”

What did you say?

☹️ “#@&*%~78490< ”

Oh, geeze, man!

You think, if you know it all, you have Wisdom?

You think, if you're educated, you have Wisdom?

You think, if you're old, you have Wisdom?

You think, if you've suffered, you have Wisdom?

Well, time for a reality check.

Keeping memories alive and smoldering or,
Earning three diplomas or,
Having amazing experiences and wanting more or,
Thinking anguish, misery and sorrow make you wise,
Are all circumstances that simply die with your body.

Baby Love, there's no room for everlasting Truth
On a scribbled-up page that turns to dirt..

Be like a magical, perpetually blank book,
Begging for the pen,
Ready to receive the teachings
Of your Self-Designed Circumstances,
And open up to the learning of them.

All the days of your life. No matter what.

That's Wisdom.
