

Q & ACLARITY NEEDED

Q: What more can I do to serve?

A: Meditate. Be the Light.

Q: I meant, to serve others?

A: Service to others on the physical plane is a false doctrine when the service prevents others from living out their karma in this lifetime.

Q: Service to others is a false doctrine?

A: False only in the sense that most humans serve other humans, animals, plants and minerals in order to balance their personal karma. Worthy, but not true “service,” when self-interest is the primary reason for serving.

Q: If I meditate and Be the Light, then, am I balancing my past life karmic indebtedness?

A: Only in so much as your single intention is to assist others, your actions remain kind, and your thoughts remain positive.

Q: Oh, My. Clearly, I know nothing. Please tell me about karma.

A: Karma is the Law of Equilibrium on the Cosmic level. It is trans-dimensional, trans-universal, Cosmically operating through all space-time and all not-space, not-time. Human thoughts, actions, and words—on the miniscule physical plane—resound throughout Infinity and Eternity. Their unbalanced vibrations permeate all other planes of existence.

Since there are no unbalanced vibrational thoughts, actions, or words in the nonphysical dimensions, much Unseen Reality is balancing the negative vibrations originating in the physical visible plane.

Seen and Unseen, All is balancing, all the time, otherwise the physical plane could not remain manifest.

Assuming that the Law of Karma is restricted to an individual's “good” vs. “bad” behavior is an error of the uninformed and egocentric.

Peace.
