

THE FEAR OF DEATH

The fear of death is the mother of all fears,
And quite unnecessary.

You perceive a physical form and call it LIFE,
But it's not.

LIFE is the invisible source of physical form.
The form will change even as we watch,
But Life continues and takes different forms that
We may, or may not, recognize as Life.

That's why "death" is an illusion.

Do you realize how much vitality would be available
For active, happy, forward-moving pursuits,
If the fear of illusory death disappeared?

Consider the energy waste when we become frantic
To do more, to move faster, to love intensely,
To rant, rail, invent, destroy, create passionately
And live ferociously—
Because we think that "Death" is the end of everything,

It'll probably be another millennia before we expand
Our consciousness enough to:

- 1 Integrate the scientific truth that Nature does not waste energy;
- 2 Remember our Life between forms or even a past incarnate life or two;
- 3 Equilibrate the fear of death by understanding the illusion caused by our extremely incomplete perception.

Sounds good?

Think about what would we do without the dire illusion of Death.

Well, one option would be to invent another seemingly horrible illusion
To slap us on the rump and holler "Giddy Up."

OR

Develop the love and compassion to move us toward assisting
The physical side of Life toward increased love and compassion.

What A Deal!
