

BEYOND DUALITY

Nothing rhymes with non-duality.
That's not an accident.

Rhymes can only exist in du-al-i-ty.

There is me,
And there is you,
Clearly, that is two.
So we do live in duality.

But there's more to me,
And...probably...more to you,
Than meets eye.

But if we can't see it with our dual eyes
We can't be it, at all.

The third eye is not an accident, either.
