

KNOW YOUR THINKING

Open your mind and sharpen your toys,
For this is the Law:

If you believe in suffering, you will.
If you believe you need redeeming, ask: "from what?"
If you believe life is sorrow and grief, you bet it is!

On the other hand, if you believe joy is your birthright, Voilà.
If you love everything, you will be loved.
If you look for happiness, joy, and beauty everywhere,
Then that's what you find!

AS YOU THINK, SO YOU ARE is Cosmic Law,
And the way your biology is hardwired for Becoming.

The difficulty lies in thinking what others have told you to think
From the time you didn't know any better, until now.
And now you think everything you think is Truth.

Truth is, you've been brainwashed, Baby Love.
You not only believe the youthful brain implants,
You also believe them to be your original thoughts.

What a gnarled-up mess.

Authenticity, soul-deep honesty, humility,
And an objective point-of-view
Are the clean-up crew.

Think, say, and do nothing without authenticity, checked against fact.
Examine your motives with deep honesty, where humility is your friend.
Discover the source of your Will-To-Be, with gratitude.

You actually become what you "think, say, and do,"
Good, Bad, or Ugly, even if you're skeptical.
So the origin of YOU needs to come from
Your Authentic Independent Thinking.

Otherwise, you're leading a two-faced life,
And hypocrisy, by any name, rots the soul.

Wake up Baby! Thump!

Design yourself impeccably and believe you are!
Then, you can pull on your big-boy britches.
