

NOTHING THERE IS

Nothing there is that is not sacred.
All blood that flows,
All sap that rises,
All life that moves and breathes,
HAS ITS SOURCE IN DIVINITY.

Every atom in every molecule,
Be it mineral, vegetable, or flesh,
Receives its Life and Light in Brotherhood
With every other atom, every other molecule,
And every other unseen but knowable
Entity in the Cosmos.

All of everything is but One Thing.
Form or formless,
We are all connected in the single
Matrix of Infinite Creation,
And therefore sacred.

As one who knows said:
"Without Divinity, existence is not possible."
