

SELF-CONSCIOUSNESS TOY

Self-consciousness is the antechamber
Of time and space.

But more than that, it's the source of
Beauty, judgment, greed, love, joy, selfishness, charity,
Selflessness, humility and all other unique human aspects.

Self-consciousness created time by turning Chaos into order.

Self-consciousness created Space from the awareness of Nothingness.

Self-consciousness created Beauty from individual sensory response.

Self-consciousness created judgment, greed, and selfishness from the Ego-driven exaggerated need to survive.

Self-consciousness created Service by acting out of Empathy.

Self-consciousness created Love and Joy from the awareness of Inner resonance, personal alignment, and sensual perception.

Without self-conscious creations, what is, just IS. PERIOD.

No fun there, but it's the foundation of sanity, discernment,
Unattachment, right action, truth, and Illumination.

Play in the new Understanding, Baby Love, but be aware that
When you've mastered the self-consciousness playground,
Your inner coach will blow the whistle.

Time, Space, and Light as you know it, will then collapse into a vortex.
The whirling mass of your experiences will become a holistic you.

After self-consciousness has adjusted to that Holy Light,
More substantial toys will appear, like
The Karma Wheel,
The Radical Forgiveness Rocket, and
The Unconditional Love Tunnel.

And so, The Fun Continues, life after life, All Ways.
