

THE SERVICE OF SILENCE

The Service of Silence is not about
Your personal spiritual growth and development.

IMAGINE praying and never asking for anything.
IMAGINE being devoted and having no object of devotion.
IMAGINE loving with no object to love.
IMAGINE “seeing into” rather than “looking at.”
IMAGINE wandering on holy land and feeling your feet tingle.
IMAGINE focusing on a single dewdrop reflecting Light—until the rest of life fades away.
IMAGINE becoming aware of your intimate connection with all you behold, Then living in the realization that your world is a fraction of, a tiny corner of, not even a spec, of the vast possibilities of Spirit.
And IMAGINE being fully aware and celebrating every circumstance you encounter.

That’s the Service beginning in Silence And transforming the Cosmos.

Your transformation, too—especially if you don’t know it’s happening.
