

YOU ARE ILLUMINATING IN

You are illuminating in a tailor-made body,
 With a specifically chosen family,
 In the perfect country, and on the most excellent planet
 For continuing the expansion of your consciousness.

Your body arrives with five extraordinary, though limited,
 External senses which it depends on to survive.

You—that-is-not-your-body—has Internal senses hardwired into the cosmos,
 Invisible, intangible, requiring only ethereal fluids to collect energies
 That the brain translates into electromagnetic realities,
 Like concepts and Ideas, which can be shared.

As yet, we do not recognize these invisibly shared Transmissions as valid.
 They still remain in the realm of “woo-woo,” “airy-fairy,”
 And “You got to be kidding!”

Even so, Intuition often sneaks in to guide us, unknown.
 Some have already developed that invisible mode of perception,
 But intuitive ability is on everyone's dance card.

It's part of Expansion Of Consciousness, which some say is the real
 Reason for living in a body, family, country, planet, where Unique experiences
 Increase Understanding and open up an Illuminated Awareness.

How individuals choose to go about their lives provides
 The passing comedy and sorrow, delight and grief,
 Which are the vicissitudes of Life whereby they expand.

“Fun” and “happy” are the temporary surface qualities
 Of life....fast fading but often mistaken for being fulfilling.

However, humanity is headed for the real deal:
 Expanding consciousness to attain a permanent
 Experience of Illumined Joy, which just happens to be Spirit's only State of Consciousness.

When that happens,
 Spiritual and Material become One.

BINGO!
UNION!
